Know who you're talking to

Clear AI vs. human labeling, a status bar tracking consultant connection, and the right identifier at every stage.

CONSTRAINTS

Less is more capable

Parents were sending photos and using the AI as a postpartum therapist. We removed attachments because we could solve every sleep problem without them.

Isn't she the cutest thing 🥺

She really is adorable! It sounds like you're doing a wonderful job caring for her during this tricky time. If you want to share more about what's been working or any challenges you're facing, I'm here to listen and help! 🤗
