

The north star

How might we create a sense of belonging and normalcy for adolescents during their medical journey?

Focused on two types of adolescent patients

The pass-byers

Shorter, outpatient treatment.

The regulars

Outpatient treatment of patients over a longer period (several months or years).

The overnighters

Isolated, shorter hospital stays up to one week.

The residents

Longer hospitalization, possibly with readmissions.